CHECK IN

This is last year's ticket but just pretend

- Your task is to check in guests with online tickets and exchange for punch ticket (“punches” on the ticket back this year). Bring your fully-charged cell phone, maybe a charger too!
- Ticket holder may bring a printed email confirmation, show you confirmation on phone, or just give you last name of reservation
- Look up by scanning QR code or last name in Eventbrite-Local Events & Fun App (Apple products only) or Eventbrite-Fun Local Events (Google/Droid products only)
- Check them in and give them punch ticket
- Also may be selling day of event tickets to guests depending on availability
- Check in opens at 1 :30 pm until 9 pm
- Go over with each guest/group the ‘Code of Conduct’

All sales up until this point have been electronic only. Ticket buyers will bring an Eventbrite ticket print out or receipt on their phone, and these need to be checked in to the Eventbrite system ,and given a physical ‘punch ticket’.

Each space on the BACK of the ticket is good for a complimentary taste, entry or admission to live music. Each destination will mark off a pre-designated space.

All purchased tickets are General Admission or VIP

VIP tickets are for sale this year and are only available to staff, sponsors, and special guests. Guardian Angels at Oriental will stand on stairs and check credentials for VIP access to balcony. This is where food and water is provided for VIP and high level sponsors. Another major perk for VIPs is access to the VIP Lounge at Local 46 including hot food provided by Sam’s No. 3.

Estimated capacity of the event is 1800 tickets sold

On the day of the event we will have about 200 tickets for sale at the event, depending on sales.

Your check in station will be provided a set number of tickets for walk in sales, when those are gone, your station is SOLD OUT.

You will have a separate set of tickets for checking people in from pre-purchased sales. Do not mix up presale tickets with Day of Event tickets!

Lanyards and ticket pouches are NOT for sale this year. Instead, lanyards have been provided by our generous sponsor, Nostalgic Homes for all ticket types.

Pouches for VIP only

WHAT TO TELL TICKET BUYERS?

Punches are on the front of the ticket - businesses will punch or mark off a square.

Back of ticket has a list of participating businesses. From that list, both VIP and General Admission receive a complimentary offering from each participating business. These are 2 different tickets; VIP attendees get some other perks. Each time a complimentary offering is redeemed, the front will be marked off by the business. Many participating businesses are doing freebies or activities for ALL ticket holders!

Point out special offerings to VIP ticket holders.

Point out QR code for most recent additions and additional information and ticket perks.

Point out costume contest times, especially check in

Offerings at all destinations are limited and first come first serve

All online tickets MUST be exchanged for this punch ticket.

Remind them of Code of Conduct and to look for Security Kiosks for help/info.

Please point out to all guests our Code of Conduct campaign.

In the past we have had problems with all of these issues.

If these issues continue to be a problem, we will no longer be able to have this event.

We have hired additional police officers, and have the Guardian Angels working the event.

Set up shifts – please make sure you find and hang these Code of Conduct signs around the check in station and at points along the street. Each participating business is also being provided 1-2 signs. We have cardboard waste receptacles to set out along street.

Break down crew – these signs need to be removed from areas after shut down and along street on Sunday morning.

Be familiar with the Code of Conduct. You're not the enforcers, but certainly help people make good choices!

Elevator speech during Check In - to tell every attendee

“Thank you for supporting nearly 8,000 students. You are a guest in our neighborhood. Be respectful of your noise, your trash, and use the port-a-potties. Pace yourself. Tip your servers. Be cool and have fun!”

Code of Conduct

HAVE FUN - We value your safety and thank you for coming today. Have a blast!

YOU ARE A GUEST - Totally Tennyson ticket holders are guests to our neighborhood, the neighbors, and the businesses located here.

GENEROSITY MAKES THIS EVENT POSSIBLE – Both donations from our participating Destinations and Sponsors, as well as you, the attendee, whose ticket purchase is benefiting over 7000 NW Denver DPS students. Thank you!

COMPLIMENTARY OFFERINGS - Offerings at destination are limited and while supplies last. Look for special menu items exclusively for our ticket holders!

RESPECT OUR HOSTS - This event is hosted by small businesses with a limited capacity to serve and also have a high standard for their craft product. We ask you treat them and their staff with respect AT ALL TIMES.

 TIP TIP TIP & SAY THANK YOU - Wait staff, bartenders and servers at all businesses will serve 3-5X over their regular volume of customers at this event. Gratuity is not included in your ticket and we ask that you acknowledge their hard work by tipping them and say THANK YOU.

DON'T DRINK AND DRIVE - No brainer. Cabs, Uber, Lyft, bike, walk, you know the drill!

RESTROOMS - Due to the increased volume of people at this event, restrooms at non-participating businesses along Tennyson are limited to their patrons.

 USE PORT-O-POTTIES - Clean and fresh port-o-potties are conveniently placed along Tennyson Street for our ticket holders. Please use them!

BE NEIGHBORLY - Tennyson Street is part of our neighborhood and we ask that you respect it as though you lived here.

 TRASH - Be mindful of trash and use the extra cardboard receptacles.
NOISE - Respect nearby residents by keeping noise to a minimum after 9 pm.

NO, NOPE, NO WAY, OUTTA HERE - Public intoxication will not be tolerated and may result in loss of ticket, citation or arrest. Alcohol may not leave any licensed premise.

ASK! - Totally Tennyson has event volunteers along the street if you have any questions or need assistance, please ask!

SECURITY - If you have a security or safety issue please find an event ambassador, security personnel or one of the police officers at one of our 4 'Information Kiosks' along Tennyson Street. If you have a medical emergency, call 911.

LOSS OF TICKET, OR WORSE - Violations of our code of conduct may result in loss of ticket by our security detail, citation or arrest by police officers patrolling street. No refunds will be issued.

So something unexpected has happened. What do you do?

Call 911 if it's a medical emergency or there is danger to attendee safety.

Contact The Guardian Angels, Sarah Lambert, Kevin Hommes, or Kimberly Haut. It's a good idea to program their numbers into your phone for event day. Kevin 720-238-1297, Kimberly 720 934 7576, Sarah 206-302-8764
